

what time it is in auckland it's busy in the plaza and there's something i've forgotten should've put it on a list i know it might be someone's birthday is the missus cooking fish tonight no that's not it she's living in new zealand now i wonder if she's eating well she never did have much to fill its true i never brought much home and what's that sicko gawking at perhaps my arms are flapping am i chattering too loudly that's not his concern it's just between myself and me surely he can't read my lips in any case i bet he's not off all his medication not cold turkey anyway i've lost my train of thought now wish i was still out the bush where no-one gives a roo poo if your buttons aren't all in the proper holes where was i wonder what the time is out there wish i'd made a shopping list but lists can stress me out i get so flustered when i see how much i have to buy i'm off my medication now it costs too much to ring new zealand maybe i'll come back tomorrow guess the bush can wait until i've sorted out what time it is in auckland
